

Free Medication & Mercury Collection

Spring Collection

Saturday, April 21, 2012 • 9 a.m.-noon

Findlay Municipal Building Parking Lot
West Crawford Street

Fall Collection

Saturday, Oct. 20, 2012

Convenient County Collections

April 21 & Oct. 20, 2012 • 9-10 a.m.

Arlington Good Samaritan Center
McComb Village Hall

Arcadia - Washington Township Fire Station

FINDLAY
THE UNIVERSITY OF FINDLAY

Protect your family and community by dropping off unwanted, unused or expired medications or mercury for proper disposal.

Saturday, April 21, 2012

9 a.m.-noon

Findlay Municipal Building Parking Lot
West Crawford Street

County Collections: 9-10 a.m.
Arlington Good Samaritan Center
McComb Village Hall
Arcadia-Washington Township Fire Station

Eligible items include:

- prescription medications (in original containers)
- liquid medications (in glass or leak-proof containers)
 - pet medications
 - inhalers
- over-the-counter medications
- medicated ointments or lotions
- narcotics (controlled substances)
 - medication samples
 - vitamins

mercury (thermostats, thermometers, mercury blood pressure meters)
Please bring all items in original containers.

Questions?

Contact the Community Partnership at 419-424-1985.

This event is supported by:
Hancock County ADAMHS Board/Community Partnership
Hancock County Sheriff's Office
Findlay City Health Department
City of Findlay Water Pollution Control
Findlay City Police Department
The University of Findlay College of Pharmacy
Rader Environmental

Permanent drop boxes are located at:
Findlay City Police Dept.
Hancock Sheriff's Office